LECTURE COURSE AT NEW COLLEGE

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN IN THE EVENING LECTURES AT THE COLLEGE OF HAWAII.

The interest manifested in the evening lecture course at the College of Hawaii, if one may judge from the audience last night, is very gratifying to those in charge, the subjects presented being "Agricultural Problems of Hawaii" by Dr. E. V. Wilcox, and "Economics of Agricultural Education" by Pres. J. W. Gilmore.

Dr. Wilcox, in speaking of the agricultural problems of Hawaii, took up in detail some of the important problems awaiting solution here. In connection with the growing of pineapples he spoke of the yellowing of the plants on certain soils, the black pineapple rot, the question of varieties and of marketing. The rubber, cotton and fruit industries were also discussed.

President Gilmore spoke of the economics of agricultural education. He said this is an age of industrial education. "We are using our knowledge for the betterment of ourselves and in this sense our education is different from the past which was perhaps more for scholarly attainments."

"These two principles can be established. First, that man can be trained in terms of industrial affairs. A student can be trained and educated in the study of wheat or of a soil as well as in the study of the classics. Secondly, achievement in industrial affairs requires training. In terms of those activities. Today we recognize that any achievement is made by application of principles that have been brought about by study. We study the thing as well as about the thing."

"Farming is coming to be looked upon more as a business and as such it demands a business training. A successful farmer must be educated in the growth of crops, the selling of crops, and in agriculture as an industry."

TAFT WILL APPOINT

THE UNDERSTANDING AS TO A NEW FEDERAL JUDGE FOR HAWAII.

WASHINGTON, February 24.—The bill providing an additional Federal judge for Hawaii passed Congress yesterday and will doubtless be signed by the President. Mr. Hatch has worked hard on this bill and deserves much credit for its successful passage.

As President Roosevelt has just announced that he will make no more appointments, the filling of this new place will remain at the disposal of the new president.

Hawaii is especially fortunate in securing an additional Federal Judge, as the State of Washington has just failed in a hard effort to secure the same thing.

Very truly yours,
J. KALANIANAOLE,
Delegate to Congress.

TUMBLE AND BREAK LEG

Ah Chuck, janitor of the McIntyre building at the corner of Fort and King street, fell from a window of the second floor about 8:10 o'clock this morning and is in the hospital with a broken leg.

The man was engaged, at the time, in hoisting the flag to the top of the pole on the building. His foot slipped, and he had a considerable drop downward to the sidewalk. Luckily he landed on his feet; for had it been on the other end this might have been a busy day for Confucius on the other side of the Styx.

When picked up it was found that his right leg was broken. There was also considerable pain in the region of the hips, but the damage there is thought to be slight.

THE ART THEATRE.

There will be a change at the Art this afternoon and the pictures will be good ones. A glance at the list published in the advertisement of the theatre will give the public an idea of what is to be seen at this popular house. The demands of the public will always be met and the crowds will undoubtedly continue to attend. So far the motion pictures there have been shown clearly. The afternoon shows are attended by particular people, among them a great many children with their parents. It is a pleasant place to spend an hour is always cool and the class of people patronizing the place is made up of some of the best of Honolulu residents. Admission is from ten cents to a quarter for adults and five cents for children.

Says Wayson Had Animus

Mark P. Robinson, president of the Board of Health, was a witness in rebuttal in the Atcherley trial this morning. He said Dr. Wayson was the only one who ever told him that Dr. Atcherley was an optimist. Also that Dr. Wayson, as a member of the Board of Health, showed animosity toward Dr. Atcherley.

J. A. Magoon himself was on the stand most of the morning. Clem K. Quinn is associated with him as counsel for Dr. Atcherley, who is on trial for insanity before Judge Lindsay.

President Morgan for the Chamber of Commerce sent the following telegram to President Taft:

"Best wishes for continued good health and a successful administration."

HOTEL BOYS AS THIEVES

Takami and Moriama, two Japanese boys employed at the Young hotel, were arrested this morning and charged with larceny.

These boys work around the rooms of the big caravansary, thus having access to both hotel and guest property. Of late articles of table ware, of considerable value, as well as other things have been missed. The hotel management instituted a quiet investigation and the trail seemed to lead up to the two boys.

This morning the police were notified. Officer Madeiros was detailed on the case, and searched the room of the boys on Beretania street. There he found considerable stuff which was promptly identified as belonging to the Young. The arrests followed. The two boys will be given a hearing tomorrow morning.

HIS LOYALTY WAS COSTLY

E. J. Hutchinson, a Fort Shafter soldier, was fined $5 in police court this morning for interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duty. Yesterday, near the corner of Maunakea and King street, a policeman picked up a native who was in an intoxicated condition. The soldier took a hand, trying to prevent the arrest, and was also taken along to the cooler. The soldier, who is a sergeant at the post, did not regard the Hawaiian as drunk, and says he was trying to explain the fact to the officer when "punched."

Keanini was given ten days for assault and battery. Joaquin Silva was fined $7 and $3 costs for swearing at a woman. The lady declared she was not half the things he called her.

At Moore, residing near the electric light station in Nuuanu valley, has complained to the detective bureau of the loss of a number of fine chickens lately in a strange manner. Her brood has been rapidly dying off and an ailment resembling poisoning, and Mrs. Moore believes that they are being poisoned by someone in the neighborhood.

"Complaint has also been made by Wm. McCandless, owner of the building at the west corner of King and Alakea streets, that someone entered the large hall on the second floor of his building a couple of nights ago and, with some sharp instrument, punched holes in the plastering, disfiguring and damaging the room. He has his suspicions, and states that an extra key to the place is still in the possession of a person who recently occupied a space on the floor."

POLLARDS COMING ON MOANA TOMORROW

The Pollard Lilliputian Opera Company, forty strong, will arrive tomorrow on the Moana from Vancouver. There is no doubt that they will receive a royal welcome from their many friends in Honolulu, who are eagerly awaiting news of the sighting of the steamer.

These little people are all from Australia, and are the only aggregation of youngsters in the stage business that really amounts to anything. They present a number of the latest musical comedies in a way that puts many an adult opera company to the blush, their singing, acting and dancing being a matter of marvel to all who see them.

There will be new song hits, specialties and dances introduced into all the operas to be given here, giving them a novel and attractive setting. The first opera will be "The Belle of New York," to run the first three nights and for the Saturday matinee. Tickets are selling at popular prices at the Bergstrom Music Co.—25c, 50c and 75c, for evening performances, and for matinees, children, 25c and adults, 50c.

WIDOW EVERETT PASSES AWAY

Older residents may remember Ned Everett, who was auctioneer with C. S. Bartow and succeeded him, in the earlier days of Honolulu. His relief Nakai has just died at the age of 79 years. She was the mother of the first wife of Robert W. Davis of Mokapu, Oahu.

ENABLING ACT COMES TOO LATE

THE SENATE
Thirteenth Day—Afternoon.
Senators found on their desks group photographs of themselves. They forthwith exchanged autographs on the backs of the cards.

On opening President Smith declared a recess for ten minutes to await some expected business from outside.

Nothing came and at 1:13 the Senate adjourned.

It appears that it was the Honolulu municipal payroll enabling act, for which the Senate waited. The House messenger with the document, however, in sight after the Senate had adjourned.
